

Business or pleasure — Communicate with labels.

The hospitality segment is driven by communication to the clients it serves. Hotels and resorts, restaurants and food services, casinos, theme parks, cruise lines, health clubs, and any facility that helps customers meet their leisure or business needs require labels. Labels are used for ID labels and security applications, assuring patron and employee safety, communication of events and rules, and advertising.

Applications to consider:

- cleaned surface labels
- social distancing signage
- QR code menu labels
- hotel room door seals
- food container seals
- name badges
- advertising
- warning labels
- retail labels
- luggage stickers
- parking pass stickers
- cooler, deli signage
- wall and floor* signage
- marketing programs, games
- mailing and shipping labels
- beer tap labels
- bumper stickers
- backstage passes
- plexiglass
- shelf talkers
